Propositions of the 1st part
Prednášam, teda som...
festival of artistic performance – poetry, prose, monologue
(competitive part of the festival)

General information and conditions:

- Competitors apply for categories according to age and form of interpreted work.
- The maximum number of competitors in one category is 12.
- Registration is electronic. The online form will be available on the Pohronské osvetové stredisko, Žiar nad Hronom website from August 4th, 2025 to September 21st, 2025 until midnight. After this deadline, the login system will be locked.
- Applications will be accepted in the order in which they are entered into the electronic system.
- In the case of a higher number of applicants in one category, the first 12 applicants will be accepted.
- The organizer reserves the right to rearrange registered contestants within individual categories, or adjust the maximum number of contestants in individual categories.
- All concerned will be informed in advance about changes, as well as non-acceptance of the application.
- One reciter can, within the age category, apply for several categories according to the form of the interpreted work (for example, 1x III. category poetry and 1x III. category monologue).
- The applying organization can only enter 1 competitor in one category (for example, one ZUŠ can have 5 reciters, but each in a different category).
- It is necessary to meet the time limit of performances in individual categories. After the time limit has passed, the contestant's performance will be interrupted and only the part until the time limit has expired will be evaluated.
